Tissue culture project on pappaya

*448. DR. C. SILVERA: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the reports appearing in 'The Jansatta' of the 14th July, 1985 wherein criticism of tissue culture project on pappaya undertaken by the I.A.R.I., Pusa, New Delhi has been made;

(b) whether an enquiry is proposed to be conducted into the project: and

(c) what is the amount spent on it so far and the results, if any, achieved?

THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI BUTA SINGH): (a) Yes. Sir.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) The amount spent on the establishment of a tissue culture laboratory at the Indian Agricultural Research Institute is approximately Rs. 2.56 lakh on equipment only.

The research work conducted so far has resulted in the development of techniques for multiplication of pappaya plants through tissue culture using tissues like shot tip and stem segments of seedlings, lateral buds, midrib, petioles etc. of adult plants. The plantlets thus available have been transferred to the field for evaluation of their performance with respect to production, quality and sex differentiation character.

P.M.'s criticism of Doordarshan Programmes

*449. SHRI KAPIL VERMA: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) what are the suggestions made by the Prime Minister and the shortcomings pointed out by him in respect of Doordarshan programmes in his letter to the Minister; and

(b) what measures Government are taking to implement these suggestions and rectify the deficiencies pointed out by the Prime Minister?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI V. N. GADGIL): (a) and (b) Television as a visual media is relatively of a recent origin. However, it has immense potentialities for education and information coupled with entertainment. Since the media has to cater to a wide section of the society whose tastes and likings vary, Doordarshan is continuously making endeavours to bring about changes in its programme formats to sustain the interest of the viewers. The letters of the Prime Minister is basically in the nature of suggestions for bringing about improvements in the various programmes of Doordorshan. The suggestions inter-alia lay emphasis on greater diversity in programmes, shorter features, production of serials depicting the history and culture of ancient India, improvement in the quality of news and current affairs, need for building up good TV personalities of tough interviewers, making the weather bulletins more informative with scientific contents and tips to farmers in layman's language.

These suggestions are being examined in consultation with Directorate General, Doordarshan for bringing about modifications in the existing formats of the programmes with a view to improve the quality of the programmes which in fact has been the main emphasis of the Prime Minister's letter.
